
NEBOSH - National Certificate in Construction Health and Safety

Overview:

This is a unit supplement to the NEBOSH General Certificate NG1 comprising of 2-weeks formal tuition concluding with a written examination and a practical assessment*

See it as an endorsement to your existing valuable NEBOSH qualification extending your competence and capability in this important topic.

To be eligible you must possess a Paper NG1 pass in the General Certificate current within the last 5-years. If you are out of time, we can arrange to refresh your certificate and help you re-sit Paper NG1 to the new syllabus.

If you do not hold the NEBOSH General Certificate NG1 please call to discuss options.

The Programme:

On this program you will learn about:

Main legal requirements relating to health and safety in UK construction work; identification and control of construction workplace hazards and the practical application of this knowledge

Subject Areas:

Construction law and management
Construction activity hazards and control
Movement of people and vehicles
Manual and mechanical handling
Work equipment
Fire, electrical, chemical and biological hazards
Physical and psychological health hazards and control
Working at height
Excavation work
Demolition hazards and control

This course will require an element of private study.

The written examination (NCC1) completes the two weeks of study.

*Candidates will need to find a suitable site for the practical assessment (NCC2) - a safety inspection of a construction workplace. This element of the assessment needs to be completed and returned to us within two weeks of the written exam

Training notes:

All attendees will get a comprehensive reference manual covering, in depth, all of the subjects included in the training program.

Assessment:

We will not leave you stranded when it comes to the final test. Throughout the program our trainers will help you to prepare for the examination by developing your question reading and answering technique. This attention to the finer detail of the examination ensures that most of our Certificate level candidates pass first time.
